

HOUSE TOUR

“I’m going to show you my house and more!
Behind each door, there’s a special place.
I’ll give you clues—let’s start the race!”

Ask: “Are you ready to guess the rooms?”

“This room is quiet, I sleep here at night.
There’s a big soft bed and a little nightlight.
I keep my teddy and books in here—
Can you guess?”

Ask: “Which room is it?”

"This is my bedroom, my toys are here.
Here's where I sleep, and I count sheep.
There's also my bed, my books, and a fluffy bear."

Ask: "What do you see in Isabella's bedroom?"
Do you have a bedroom? What's in there?"

“Now here’s a door that’s white and bright.
Inside, we clean and wash just right.
A toothbrush, soap, and a towel, too...
Guess the room—can you?”

Ask: “What room do we use to wash and brush?”

"This is the bathroom, where I get clean!
I brush my teeth so they stay nice and sheen.
I wash my hands and take a bath—
Splish splash splash, then dry on the mat!"

Ask: "What can you see?"

“Now, this room smells really good.
We cook and eat delicious food here!
The fridge is cold, the oven’s hot...
Can you guess? I come here a lot!”

Ask: “Which room do we use to cook in?”

"This is the kitchen, full of food.
We cook and eat—Yummy, it's good!"
There's a fridge, a table, and a pan.
"Mom makes soup, and I stir if I can!"

Ask: "What do you eat in the kitchen?"
"Can you find something that doesn't belong to the kitchen?"

“This next room is where we rest and sit.
There’s a TV, a couch, and stories to knit.
I play here when the day is done—
Can you guess what this cozy room is?”

Ask: “What room has a couch and TV?”

"This is the living room, big and bright.
We read, we play, we laugh at night."
There's a sofa, a rug, and a big TV.

Ask: "What do you do in your living room?"

“Next, there’s the place where we find chairs and a table.
and we sit to eat, all nice and neat.
We eat breakfast, lunch, and dinner here, too.—
What’s this room?”

Ask: “Where do we eat together?”

"This is the clean dining room, so clean and bright.
We sit and eat from left to right!
I eat soup, rice, and sometimes pie—
I always say thanks before I try!"

Ask: "Can you find something that doesn't belong to the dining room?"

“This room has baskets, soap, and more.
We wash our clothes behind this door.
The washing machine goes round and round—
What’s this room with a spinny sound?”

Ask: “What room do we use to clean our clothes?”

“This is the laundry room, clean and neat.
It smells like soap and spinning sheets!
We fold our clothes and socks in a pair—
Would you like to help me there?”

Ask: “What room do we use to clean our clothes?”

"Thanks for guessing and coming along!
Each room has a place where we all belong.
Now tell me—what room do you like more?
The bedroom, the kitchen, or the living room floor?"
